GAME.

One of those rare intervals in which the Brooklyns outdo themselves and win from the New York Nationals came to pass at Washington Park yesterday. This was in the second game of the double header there. The New Yorks won the first game, and made a very workmanlike job of kalsomining the Brooklyns, but in the second the home team played confidently and capably, striking one of those streaks when they show more strength and speed than their normally superior adversaries.

In the first game Taylor cast a spell over the Brooklyns that made the offensive department of their play as weak as water. The mute master of slants, who grows better with each succeeding game, was in fine fettlehis chronic state these days-and to his will and wing the Brooklyn batters were as yielding as putty. The play in general in the first game was good, steady fielding marking the contest. It was Dahlen's quick handling of the ball on attempted double steals that prevented Brooklyn from scoring in the first inning after dessier's double a base on balls had created two base The New Yorks swung their bats tellingly in the second inning, getting together with a will. Dahlen beat out an infield hit and advanced on Dunn's out at first. Gilbert pum-melled the leather for a safety to right that out Dahlen on third, and Bowerman's fence breaker to right scored Dahlen and Gilbert. The Brooklyns had men on bases in this in-ning, but Taylor's good work and his stanch support balked attempts to bring them in. In the third Donlin's triple and a hit batsman put the New Yorkers on the road to runs, but they fell by the wayside owing to pretty

A great catch by Lumley of Gilbert's liner and an equally notable stop by Gilbert of a wicked grounder illumined the ensuing blank innings. Bresnahan's swat in the seventh was too torrid for Batch. Donlin walked, but was caught napping. McGann filed out, Mertes was hit, and Dahlen singled, scoring Bresnahan. Mertes Jawed at the umpire in the seventh and was sent into exile by Emslis. as Ames showed expensive inactivity in covering first base on Babb's dinky tap to right. The New York batters streamed back to the bench as fast as they came up, until the fourth inning, when singles by Bresnshan, Donlin and Mertes produced a run.

The Brooklyns scored in the fifth on a base on balls to Ritter, Jordan's sacrifice and Dillon's single. Penlin's two bagger and Mertes's hit gave New Yorks run in the next inning, and in the next one New York again scored, the wherefore of the count being a base on bail's to Gilbert, Babb's miss of Bowerman's gresser and Ames's tingling single. The Brooklyns in turn gained two runs. Batch singled but was forced by Ritter. Jordan's best was a strike out. Scailon bunted safely. Dillon hit safely, and on the ball being returned Ames threw to McGraw, so that Ritter was able to scoot home Gessler singled and scored Scanlon. The score:

Defeat of Washingtons and Philadelphias Victory Over the Bostons Puts Griffith's Men in the Lead Once More The Browns and Detroits Succeed.

The New York Americans regained the lead yesterday by defeating the Washingtons while the Philadelphias were taking Boston's measure. The Chicagos lost two games to the St. Louis Browns, and also lost third place. The Detroits won the first game from Cleveland, which team has slumped badly, and tied the second. Nevertheless, St. Louis took sixth place from Detroit. The results: New York, 6: Washington, 5.

NEW YORK (A. L.), 6; WASHINGTON, 5, Both Griffith and Wolfe were batted out of the box after five innings each of tribulation in one exciting game on the hill yesterday, and then young Clarkson went in and landed a victory for New York in clever style. style. The team that has the Bostons trembling in their boots had some tremors of their own to beat the assertive Senators yesterday.

Partiy through the ease with which the Washingtons crushed Griffith's curves and partly through playing on New York's part that was decidedly brainless, the tailenders at one time had a lead of four runs. But Griffith's sandy coterie put the few forlorn croskers that were on hand to silence and pulled up on even terms with a batting rally that hurried the needful runs to the plate and pulled the rooters upright in an outburst of shouting enthusiasm. Only two hits were made off Clarkson in the last four innings, and he struck out five men and brought in the winning run with a three-bagger. Hughes, too, was effective, but his kicking on balls and strikes bordered on the childish. He pitched good ball, but he and some of his associates engaged in faultfinding that was ridiculous.

Conroy singled in the second inning, was caught off the bag by Wolfe, but reached second in safety on Stahl's low throw to Cassidy. Ganzel scored him with a line hit to left. Kittredge made a hit in the third that Elberfeld would have fielded had not Conroy crossed him. Wolfe also singled, as did Hill. Dougherty's thrown in of Hill's lick would have nipped Kittredge at the plate, had Griffith let the ball come through. Griff butted in" and spoiled the play.

Mullen tripled in the fourth and scored on Cassidy's clout. Donovan singled to right and Keeler fielded the ball to Conroy, but not in time to head off Cassidy. Donovan chased down toward second and Conroy threw to Elberfeld. The latter was not awake to the possibilities of the situation and allowed himself to be outwitted by Donovan that Cassidy slipped in with a run. In the next inning a base on balls, a force and Stahl's mighty wallop to deep centre gave Washington two nore runs.

Fultz began New York's half of the feverish fifth with a single. He moved upon McGuire's demise at first and was extinguished on Griffiths or older to take a threw to sec

MANHASSET BAY REGATTA. Shifting Winds Favor Racers No Contest

Between 29-Footers. All sorts of weather favored the twentyseven yachts that started in the fall regatta of the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club yesterday. The yachts were sent of from a line at the red and black buoy of Execution Rock and went to Matinnicock Point, then to Scotch Caps and then home. At the start the wind was from the south-southwest, but it soon changed to southwest. Later the wind went to northwest and got quite light and then it settled down from the southwest, a good sailing breeze. These changes made it a broad reach on the first leg, another reach on the second and a beat home.

The regatta committee, Charles D. Mower and F. A. Hill, were on board Commodore A. H. Alker's steamer Florence. It was expected that the 70 and 60 footers would race in this regatta. J. Rogers Maxwell was ready with the Yankee, but W. K. Vander bilt, Jr., said he had another engagement and Cornelius Vanderbilt had gone to Newport

The 60-footers are laid up.

The Kenoshi defeated the Anawanda in the Indian Harbor class by 38 inutes 45 seconds. The Plover beat the Dory in the 18-foot class. On the New York team were representatives of the Brooklyn, Manhattan, Columbia Oval and Kings County cricket clubs. The Jerseymen were first at bat and were all dismissed for 99 runs, largely through the effective bowling of B. Kortlang and A. Hoskings. Kortlang was responsible for the dismissai of six of his adversaries, including C. P. Hurditch, the champion bat, at a cost of 50 runs, while Hoskings took 3 for 23. Top score was made by C. H. E. For the losers F. J. Prendergast of the Manhattan Cricket Club was the only player to put up any sort of defence, he being not out with 16 to his credit. J. L. Poyer, crack bat of the Brooklyns, succumbed on the first ball sent down by A. G. Laurie, and the rest of the wickets fell in quick succession. Laurie took the honors with the ball, dismissing five men for 21 runs. Kelly, who had his left thumb split in the game, disposed of three for 9, and C. H. Clarke took one for 12. Richard Sheldon, the giant shot putter the New York A. C., has been suspended from that organization for a period of six months. His offence against the club rules was a failure to appear at the Metropolitan A. A. championships on Aug. 30, at Travers Island. Sheldon on that date was cruising with George Lauder on the schooner Endymion. Sheldon was also absent from the A. A. KEEN HARNESS CONTESTS. Hugh Tallant Wins in Final of Amackassin Princess Pique Beats Annie Little in Championship Trotting Race.

Not since the New York Driving Club opened the matinée season at the Empire track has there been a better meet than that of yesterday. While the fields were not large every contest was keen and the exhibition miles were among the fastest of tween the two championship mares, Princess Pique, 2:11¾, and Annie Little, 2:12. Two weeks ago the two stood even in the number of winning heats for the season, then Annie Little won and led. Yesterday the Princess again evened up the score by winning in commanding fashion.

In the race yesterday neither contestant was up to record breaking form, but Princess Pique was decidedly the better, for Annie Little not only made several breaks in each mile, but she was rough gaited. Mr. Cockerill was fortunate in again drawing the inside position, but he lost it before reaching the first turn when Annie Little lost her balance. Princess Pique never surrendered the advantage gained, although her competitor came fast in the homestretch and was only beaten neck and shoulders.

The second heat was not so close. Annie Little again lost her balance in trying to head the black mare down the hackstretch, and when rallied for the finish she became rough gaited and could not extend herself. Each now has fiteen winning heats.

Brayton Ives's champion matines trotter, Monte Carlo, 2:07%, failed to equal his former mile in 2:08 by a fraction of a second, but he trojted the fastest mile of the season aside from his own unequalled former performance. The quarter was reached in 32½, it was the first really fast mile, the horse had been driven in over a month and he was not keyed up.

One of the surprises of the day was the two record breaking miles by Luke Burke's trotting team El Moro, 2:18½, and West Wilkee, 2:13½. Starting to beat their own earlier record of 2:15½, the first attempt was a winning effort, the mile being trotted in 2:15. Half an hour later the pair were brought out again and set a new mark by trotting the mile in 2:14½.

The fastest mile in a contest was trotted and won by A. E. Perrin's recent purchase, Wilton Boy, an easy winner in 2:13½. Between the heats Brayton lives drove Nora McKinney, 2:12½, two exhibition miles, the first in 2:11 and the repeat in 2:13. The third quarter of the second mile was trotted in 0:3

A good sized crowd was present at the ten round bout between Larry Conley of Boston and Tommy King of New Bedford, at Brockand Tommy King of New Bedford, at Brockton, Mass., on Friday night. The pair met at 150 pounds, and Conley was the victor in the third round. After the second round it was evident that King was going to lose, for his punches lacked strength. Conley opened the fight by sending King to the fleor for the count in the opening round. But in the second King came back and mixed it up so lively that even Conley's mest ardent backers were surprised. In the third King was floored twice. The second time he was down for eight seconds. Conley 'finally put King off his feet for good with a swing on the point of the chin.

Carlisle Indians Defeat Lebanon at Football. CARLISLE, Pa., Sept. 17.—The Carlisle-Indians defeated Lebanon Valley at football here to-day by a score of 28 to 0, a duplicate here to-day by a score of 28 to 0, a duplicate of last year's score against them. The Indians at the season's opening are faster, but weigh about the same as last year. The first haif was hotly contested and ended with the score Carlisle, 6: Lebanon, 0.

The visitors were winded in the second half, but the redskins seemed to gain strength. Jude, Fisher, Libby and Baker, for the Indians, distinguished themselves by brilliant dashes. Jude missed two goals from touchdown, however. AUTOMOBILES.

Warm Work for Columbia Football Team. Columbia's first week of football practice came to an end yesterday with two hours of rapid fire work in a temperature close to the ninety degree mark. All the work was done in the morning and from 10 o'clock until noon the players were kept busy at one or another of the different forms of elementary work with scarcely amoment's letup. Three new men reported yesterday. John Fisher, regular left half back on the varsity eleven last fall, was among these. He was in prime condition and weighed 170 pounds. A. Aigeltinger, who rowed on the '07 class crew and who was a substitute guard last season, was another one to put in his first appearance for the season. A third newcomer was a big husky player named Goldstone, who is a freshman. He has never played football before, but looks as if something could be made of him.

To-morrow regular scrimmage work will begin. Harold H. Weekee, '08, John Wolff, '01: James R. Knapp, '02, and Edward B. Bruce, '08, will be out, it is expected, to assist Morley in coaching. Columbia's first week of football practice
